

Muskoka Parry Sound Sexual Assault Services Services

- 24/7 Women's Sexual Assault Helpline
- Crisis Counselling and Long-Term Therapy
- Drop-In Programs
- Public Education
- Community Development
- Referral and Advocacy
- Police/Court/Hospital Accompaniment Available
- Volunteer Services

Facts

67% of Canadians know a woman who is a survivor of sexual violence.

50% of Canadian women have experienced at least 1 incident of physical or sexual violence since the age of 16.

86% of sexual assault survivors are female.

Source: Canadian Women's Foundation & Ontario Coalition of Rape Crisis Centres

Contact us for information and services

 Muskoka Parry Sound Sexual Assault Services

 @mpssas1

24/7 Helpline:

1-800-461-2929

Bracebridge: 705-646-2122

Parry Sound: 705-774-9083

www.mpssas.com

Muskoka Parry Sound Sexual Assault Services

DO YOU KNOW WHAT CONSENT MEANS?

Yes Means Yes

According to Canadian law consent is both positive and ongoing. That means saying yes, initiating and/or enjoying sexual activity and continuing to do so during sexual activity.

- ✓ Respect
- ✓ Hard Work
- ✓ Pleasure
- ✓ Commitment
- ✓ Caring
- ✓ Honesty
- ✓ Consensual sex
- ✓ Trust
- ✓ Communication
- ✓ Compromising
- ✓ Friendship
- ✓ Openness

- ✗ Jealousy
- ✗ Possessiveness
- ✗ Violence
- ✗ Only about sex
- ✗ Obsession
- ✗ Cruelty
- ✗ Sexual assault
- ✗ Fear
- ✗ Proving yourself
- ✗ Manipulation
- ✗ Intimidation
- ✗ Selfishness

Facts about Consent

Only 1 in 3 Canadians understand what sexual consent means.

Many young Canadians have a blurred understanding of consent when technology is also involved.

Source: Canadian Women's Foundation

www.mpssas.com